ENJOYS FINE HEALTH

Year Previously, She Says, Tanlac Gave Her Lasting Relief.

"Tanlac is the best remedy I ever took for my trouble, and I am glad to recommend it because it gave such fine results," said Mrs. Jessie Cisson, of No. 15 Main St., Greenville, in a statement she gave 'I took Tanlac for a generally run down and weakened condition, and at the time I was almost sure I had a mild case of pellagra. I was very weak and very nervous. My head ached all the time, I was troubled lot with dizziness and my appetite had

"But I felt like a new person when I quit taking Tanlac. I gained in weight and strength right from the time I began taking it. I soon had a good appetite, and the Tanlac soon had me feeling well and strong. The headaches and nervousness were soon relieved. I am enjoying fine health now and have been ever since I quit taking Tanlac, and that was a year

Senator Wash Declares High Prices Cause of Unrest.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 18 .- Quicker action by Congress in the campaign to reduce the cost of living was urged today on Senate and House. Senator Walsh declared high prices were at the bottom of all the unrest and charged that Congress was wasting time when something should have been done already in response to President Wilson's recommendations.

Mayors of New Jersey cities appear ing before the House Agriculture Com mittee, said action was needed at once to stop the rising scale of prices. Reg ulations of imports was one means suggested. The amendment broadening the food control act will be considered tomorrow by the committee and frobably reported to the House.

Sale of surplus army food began today at storage centers throughout the country. Definite reports were not available but it was believed that orders had been received for many millions of pounds of canned meats, beans and other staples, to be sent out by parcel post.

Debate in Congress was occupied to a great extent by living cost prob-

Absence of a quorum in the House delayed until tomorrow final action on a resolution calling for the Federal Trade Commission to begin immediate inquiry into the 'increase in the price of shoes.

Representative Siegel, Republican, New York, submitted figures which he said were obtained by New York cloth ing manufacturers and showed that "in most cases the retailer makes 50 per cent profit and in some places 100 per cent." The manufacturers cost he said, was due to the cost of labor. He presented figures to show that an over coat costing the manufacturer $10.85 in 1917, advanced to $17.57 in 1918.
